PARAPINE

UPPER HUTT CITY VS WELLINGTON OLYMPIC
MAIDSTONE PARK - KO 3:00 PM

A message from Mark . . .

Welcome one and all for what is shaping up to be an enormous triple header of fabulous football, starting with our ladies team hosting one of their arch enemies in Wellington United, followed by the Men's Prem team against Olympic and last but definitely not least the Reserves fresh from a great away victory hosting Eastbourne.

Wendi and the ladies continue to set the standards with reaching the last 8 of the NZWKOC last weekend with a resounding 10 – 1 win over Wairarapa and are currently sitting top of their league, good luck for the final run in ladies, we are all cheering for you!

As for the men, we enter the final third of the season with everyone doing the calculations and permutations of what will be required to have a successful season. We are no different and with only picking up 2 points from a possible 18, we will need maximum reward from our penultimate home game before hitting the road for 3 weeks, to ensure we don't end up in a dog fight to survive.

Our last game versus Island Bay was very encouraging and with a little bit more quality in the defensive third we could have got the 3 points the performance deserved. We had to work hard to create both of our goals (Dan, Jeremy), where Island Bays goals were off our mistakes. I have always said that we will make mistakes but it is how we cover these up, which will define the end result, unfortunately we didn't scramble as well as we were at the start of the year and got punished. In saying that though, this is the time to be brave and get on the ball, want to express yourself and win your individual battle.

A message from Mark . . .

Today we welcome James and the Olympic team buoyed by a victory over BNU in their last outing, which I'm sure will give them confidence to attack their final run in of games. Olympic have always been a passionate football club and I'm sure they will be fighting for every point.

Before you run away to watch that other shaped ball, stay and watch the rezzies, Phil has them playing some excellent footie and you will see some of our exciting youngsters in action.

Hope you enjoy all today's games, going to be a bit difficult to shout for the orange team today as 5/6 teams play in orange so get your yelling voices out and show your support for your favourite player, we certainly do appreciate it.

Hope to see you all in the club after the game to chew the fat!

Brockie leads the way with cup win . . .

As the All Whites were squaring up against some of the best players in the world, including a certain Cristiano Ronaldo, at the FIFA Confederations Cup in Russia, other Kiwis of both gender were making their mark on the professional game elsewhere, in particular Jeremy Brockie.

In South Africa, soon after SuperSport United defender Michael Boxall took the field for the All Whites against Portugal, countryman Brockie helped the pair's club successfully defend the Nedbank Cup in a 4-1 triumph over Orlando Pirates. Brockie was in the thick of the action for much of the game and spurned an opportunity to double his side's 1-0 lead when his penalty kick was brilliantly saved just minutes into the second half. But he was quick to make amends, meeting a cross from strike partner Bradley Grobler with his head in the 61st minute to make it 2-0 and put SuperSport well on track to claim their fifth title in the Nedbank Cup, South Africa's premier knockout competition.

"After the penalty miss, Pirates probably thought they had a chance," the 49-cap All White admitted. "Sometimes when things like that happen, the opposition can turn around and the team can head up quickly but we stayed strong and positive. And it was nice to make up for that miss a couple of minutes later." Orlando will be sick of the sight of Brockie as he also netted in last year's Nedbank Cup final against the same opponents. The former Wellington Phoenix striker has reportedly attracted plenty of interest from rival clubs in recent weeks but SuperSport officials have insisted he is not for sale at any price, underlining his importance to the Matsatsantsa cause.

City Review

A message from Gibby . . .

They latched onto a mistake just on half way and after some quick interplay launched a stinging shot into the back of the net, a well taken goal and absolutely deserved in terms of effort and perseverance. Carolyn O'Reilly whom had been pushing forward throughout the game particularly for set pieces finally got just rewards scoring from a corner in the 87th minute, the final score 10-1.

Today we host last year's champions Wellington United, and despite the first round result, we know that this will be a tough battle with both teams trying to play an attractive brand of football. Wellington United currently sit third in the title race, but within touching distance of the top which will ensure a hugely competitive match up. We look forward to hosting Wellington United and their supporters in the clubrooms after the game.

City Review

A message from Gibby . . .

Last weekend we hosted Wairarapa for the 3rd time this season in a knockout Cup round. Having played in Masterton only a week earlier, we knew that they would be looking to improve on previous performances.

The first few minutes were a scrappy affair, with both teams trying to settle in, but Sarah Gregorius managed to slot home after 5 mins with a cool finish over the incoming keeper to make it 1-0. Ten minutes later Bex Jefferies found herself through on goal after rounding a couple of defenders and her shot scuffed across the face of goal, hitting the post and rolling in to make it 2-0. Shortly after Grego added two more to her tally and Grace McRobie knocked one in after some good build up play to take us into half time at 5-0.

For us, this was a marked improvement, having only been 1-0 up at the half the previous week. But we were conscious that we needed to press on despite the scoreline.

Grego added her final mark on the game in the 58th minute, with Emma Main also coming off the bench to score two of her own. Bex J put her name on the scoresheet for a second time with a long range effort that eluded the Wairarapa keeper. The game went into a lull for a short period, during which Wairarapa pushed additional players forward.
